Quinn Rounsaville Joins Washington Property Company As VP, Acquisitions

Bethesda, MD, January 21, 2018 – Washington Property Company (WPC) of Bethesda, MD has hired Quinn Rounsaville as Vice President, Acquisitions, a newly created position. With 14 years of experience at JBG Companies, Mr. Rounsaville is responsible for sourcing and analyzing acquisition opportunities and negotiating the resulting transactions. He also will be involved in company strategic planning.

Mr. Rounsaville joins WPC from the leasing and asset management group of JBG Smith (and its predecessor, JBG Companies), where he focused on the leasing and management of JBG’s commercial portfolios in Maryland and the District of Columbia. Before that, he worked at Cassidy & Pinkard (now Cushman Wakefield), representing commercial landlords and tenants in the Northern Virginia market. He holds a BA degree in history and theology and a Master of Real Estate Finance degree, both from Georgetown University.

“We are excited to have Quinn join us in our effort to expand WPC’s acquisition of commercial real estate in the metropolitan Washington region,” said WPC Principal Andrew Eshelman. “Quinn has extensive leasing and asset management skills gained from years of experience at some of the leading commercial real estate companies in our area, including the last 14 at JBG. His hiring will significantly enhance our ability to transact and execute on a variety of real estate acquisitions.”

Washington Property Company (www.washproperty.com) is a full-service commercial real estate company located in Bethesda, Maryland. Established by Charles K. Nulsen, III, WPC is involved in a full range of real estate investment services including acquisition, land use, development, property management, leasing, and construction management. WPC has developed more than eight million square feet of commercial space in the Washington, DC metropolitan area and currently has over 1.6 million residential square feet under development. WPC is actively pursuing office, multi-family, retail, and mixed-use development opportunities throughout the region. Through its management company, WPC Management, LLC, Washington Property Company manages over 1.8 million square feet of commercial space.
